On the ball with the Manager

Welcome to today's visitors Wolverhampton Wanderers who have been finding the First Division going tough this season.

They have recently appointed a new manager, John Barnwell, and will no doubt be looking for something from today's game.

We picked up our first away win at Queen's Park Rangers at the weekend and I have been very pleased with the form we showed in our last two home games.

The only thing I can complain about is that we didn't get at least a draw from our clashes with West Brom and Nottingham Forest. Having said that, I feel sure that both these sides will be among the honours this season.

So even though we lost our last two home games, I believe that we have started a good run - even though that may sound odd. We have been looking a very good side and at last we seem to have got over our injury problems.

Away from home in the early part of the season we tended to get what we deserved because we weren't playing well. But now I feel that I can see the daylight at the end of the tunnel and I feel sure that things will now start to tick over as we would like.

Our youth team will be playing here at Burnden on Tuesday night in an F.A. Youth Cup second round replay against Sheffield Wednesday. The game starts at 7 p.m. and I hope you will come along to give the youngsters your support.

Welcome to . . .

Wolves' fans were hoping new manager John Barnwell's arrival would mark the start of a rapid improvement and, when they ended a run of eight successive away defeats by winning at Bristol City on the day after his appointment, everyone at Molineux became optimistic for the first time in several months.

But four days later Wolves were back to their old habits when they went down 0-1 at Tottenham so Mr. Barnwell will be looking for a further improvement when they come to Burnden Park for this critical game today.

There have been many changes at Molineux this season, not least among the team. Twenty players have so far been used in First Division games.

Wolves lost their first three League games and were defeated at Fourth Division Reading (0-1) in the League Cup. Consequently, they have been struggling among the bottom three all season. After another run of three defeats in a row, manager Sammy Chung's contract was cancelled in November and John Barnwell, the former Peterborough manager and Arsenal and Nottingham Forest player, was appointed to take over.

So far the new boss has not changed the team much as it was beginning to show signs of settling down. The defence has looked much sounder in recent weeks — no longer conceding numerous goals as in one spell when 14 went into their net in four matches — and, though there is clearly a lot of work to be done before the attack functions really efficiently, the position is not as depressing now as it was a few weeks ago.

Bob Hazell and George Berry have now settled down as the central defenders while Derek Parkin has switched from central defence to his old position at left-back with Geoff Palmer moving across to right-back.

Peter Daniel, the full-back signed from Hull for £150,000 last summer, has moved forward to become a very good addition to the midfield.

As expected of a team in Wolves' precarious position, they tend to play a more defensive 4-4-2 formation these days with Ken Hibbitt, Willie Carr and Steve Daley filling the other midfield positions.

Mel Eves and Norman Bell have been forming the attack in the continued absence through injury of England forward John Richards and the loss of form of Bill Rafferty.

Wolves' catalogue of disaster began on the opening day of the season when they went down 0-1 at Aston Villa. Subsequent away results went: Leeds (0-3), Reading (0-1), Southampton (2-3), Everton (0-2), Nottingham Forest (1-3), Middlesbrough (0-2) and Derby (1-4) until they finally won 1-0 at Bristol City. Then came their other set-back at Spurs (0-1).

Last season Wolves were happy enough to hold onto their First Division place, and nothing more, following their solitary campaign in the Second Division in 1976/77. There was never much doubt that they would get out of the Second Division at the first attempt but then manager Sammy Chung realised that further signings would have to be made in order to bring the side up to First Division standard.

He raised some cash by selling Alan Sunderland to Arsenal, for £240,000, and Steve Kindon to Burnley for approximately £80,000. He re-invested almost the entire amount when signing goalkeeper Paul Bradshaw and striker Bill Rafferty.

In spite of the changes, Wolves were uncomfortably close to the relegation area for much of the season and when, in mid-March, they entered a dismal run of nine games without a win, the position became critical.

WOLVERHAMPTON WANDERERS

Wolves were then third from bottom and it became a battle between them, Chelsea, West Ham and Q.P.R. to avoid the third relegation place. Fortunately, they pulled out a super-human effort to win their final three games and pull clear.

Mr. Chung did not feel inclined, however, to make any further major signings during the close-season and, when the side opened up in such a bleak manner this term, he did his best to assemble a workmanlike side from players already on his staff.

John Barnwell's main task since his arrival has been to get greater effort from each of his players. There have been problems with unsettled stars but, soon after his arrival, he let all his staff know of his intentions.

"I have my own ideas and I shall do things my way," he explained. "If any player is not prepared to do as I ask, he can go out of the door. I can't have half-measures. I need total loyalty."

Harsh words. But they contain the sort of realism that must be adopted if Wolves are to play themselves out of trouble.

PAUL BRADSHAW (Goalkeeper). Paul joined Wolves last season from Blackburn in a £150,000 deal. Blackburn introduced him to their League eleven in 1973/74 and now he is an established England under-21 international.

GARY PIERCE (Goalkeeper). Gary made 23 League appearances for Huddersfield and was transferred to Wolves for £45,000 in 1973. A year later he was in their League Cup winners' team at Wembley. He lost his place to Paul Bradshaw last season but could be back today if Bradshaw has not fully recovered from injury.

GEOFF PALMER (Defender). Versatile Geoff is normally at left-back but in recent weeks he has been turning out on the opposite flank. He turned professional with Wolves in August 1972 and got his chance in the League team in 1973/74. Geoff won two England under-23 caps.

BOB HAZELL (Defender). Though Bob only made his League debut last season he is already playing regularly in both the England "B" and under-21 teams. His ambition is to join Viv Anderson among the coloured players to gain full England caps.

GEORGE BERRY (Defender). George developed with Ipswich Town but he didn't get into their League eleven. Wolves signed him in 1976 and he had made eight League appearances before the start of this season. In recent weeks he has been holding his place as one of the central defenders.

DEREK PARKIN (Defender). Derek made his League bow for Huddersfield in 1964/65 and Wolves had to pay £80,000 to sign him in 1968. Since then he has made well over 400 first-team appearances and he gained five England under-23 caps.

JOHN McALLE (Defender). John came through the Molineux juniors to make his League debut in 1967/68 and he has now made over 350 League appearances for the club.

PETER DANIEL (Midfield/Defender). Wolves paid Hull £150,000 to sign Peter last summer after he had established himself as an outstanding full-back. He won six England under-21 caps in that position and opened his Wolves' career as their right-back. In recent weeks, however, he has been playing in midfield.

STEVE DALEY (Midfield). Much speculation has surrounded the future of Steve since the departure of former manager Sammy Chung and several clubs have been reported ready to pay a huge fee to sign him. Steve came into Wolves' League team in 1971/72 and for the past year he has been playing regularly in the England "B" side.

WILLIE CARR (Midfield). Willie made his First Division bow with Coventry in 1967/68 and he won six Scottish international caps while with the Sky Blues. Wolves paid £100,000 to secure his signature in 1975 and he has since become a key figure in the middle of the field.

KEN HIBBITT (Midfield). Ken is a player who likes to move forward to score goals and he has on two occasions been Wolves' top scorer. So far this season, however, he has scored only twice. A former England under-23 international, Ken joined Wolves from the now defunct Bradford P.A. for a mere £5,000 in 1969.

MEL EVES (Forward). Mel made a meteoric rise in top-class football for it wasn't until last season that he was introduced to the Wolves' side. He celebrated by scoring in three successive games towards the end of the season and he was then picked to go on the England "B" tour to the Far East. Mel has scored twice this season.

NORMAN BELL (Forward). Norman served his apprenticeship at Molineux and has been called up for first-team duty on many occasions over the past three seasons. This season he seems to have won himself a permanent place.

M.P. for Bolton West, Mrs. Ann Taylor, was a welcome visitor to Burnden when she handed over a cheque for £71,863 to club vice-chairman Mr. J. W. Woods. The presentation was on behalf of the Football Grounds Improvement Trust and was a contribution towards the cost of safety work undertaken at Burnden. Also in the picture is Trust member Tom Finney.

Frank back in front

Frank Worthington's two goals in the Wanderers' 3-1 win at Q.P.R. last Saturday took him into an outright lead at the top of the First Division scorers with 13 goals — one more than Everton's Bob Latchford.

Youth game on Tuesday

The recent spell of bad weather brought the inevitable crop of postponed games — including the reserve match against Bury at Burnden Park last Saturday.

Two youth team games were also hit and the LFA Youth Cup tie against Oldham Athletic due to have been played at Boundary Park on November 28th was called off. No new date is available for this game at the moment.

But the youth team's F.A. Youth Cup second round replay against Sheffield United, postponed this week will now be played next Tuesday here at Burnden Park with a 7 p.m. kick-off. The kick-off time has been brought forward in case extra-time is needed.

A special first day cover commemorating today's game between the Wanderers (champions of the Second Division) and Forest (First Division champions) is on sale at the ground today and at the head Post Office in Victoria Square.

The envelope has an attractive coloured design which is reproduced above and is priced 45p including the first day cover stamp.

It is the third issue concerning the Wanderers who marked their Third Division championship win and the club's centenary in the same way.
